Conference speech

Speaking at a medical tourism conference provides an unparalleled opportunity to reach a targeted audience of professionals who are directly involved in the industry.

Networking

Building Strategic Partnerships. Medical tourism involves collaboration between various stakeholders, including hospitals, clinics, facilitators, insurers, travel agencies, and government bodies. Networking creates opportunities to build relationships with these key players, forming partnerships that can expand your reach.

ABOUT EMTW – SINCE 2016

Since 2016, BookingsMed (WFS) has been at the forefront of the medical tourism industry by organizing its premier event. With the collaboration of four co-organizers, the event has been rebranded and revitalized as EMTW—European Medical Tourism and Wellness.

EMTW has emerged as a leading European event for medical tourism, providing a unique platform that connects key global players through a diverse mix of conferences, B2B meetings, and round tables. This year, we are proud to welcome participants from 65 countries to Oradea, Romania. The event will bring together medical and wellness centers from Europe, Africa, the Middle East, and Asia, along with professional agencies from the medical and wellness tourism sectors. The 9th annual meeting of EMTW will uphold European quality and management standards, focusing on discussions about patient care, market trends, and strategic B2B meetings and masterclasses.

CO-ORGANIZERS

Since 2016, BookingsMed (WFS) has hosted the EMTW—European Medical Tourism and Wellness, now a leading event with a global reach. This pivotal gathering connects medical and wellness professionals from over 55 countries through conferences, B2B meetings, and round tables in Italy and Spain. Its 9th edition in Romania promises European-quality discussions on patient care, market trends, and strategic workshops.
